

ARTICLE II

DEFINITIONS

SECTION 2.20      TERMS AND WORDS DEFINED:

2.20.01                      Accessory Building

A detached subordinate building or structure on the same premises with a main building, occupied or devoted to an accessory use which is appropriate, supplemental and customarily related to the use at the main building or premises. Where an accessory building is attached to a main building in a substantial manner by a wall or roof, such accessory building shall be considered part of the main building, including a carport, covered porch or other roofed structure.

2.20.02                      Accessory Use, or Accessory

- A.      A use which is clearly incidental to, customarily found in connection with, and (except in the case of accessory off-street parking spaces or loading) located on the same zoning lot as, the principal use to which it is related. When "accessory" is used in this text, it shall have the same meaning as accessory use.

An accessory use to a residential principal use includes, but is not limited to the following:

1.      Residential accommodations for guests, servants and/or caretakers.
2.      Swimming pools for the use of the occupants of a residence, or their guests.
3.      Domestic or agricultural storage in a barn, shed, tool room, or similar accessory building or other structure.
4.      Home occupations as defined herein.
